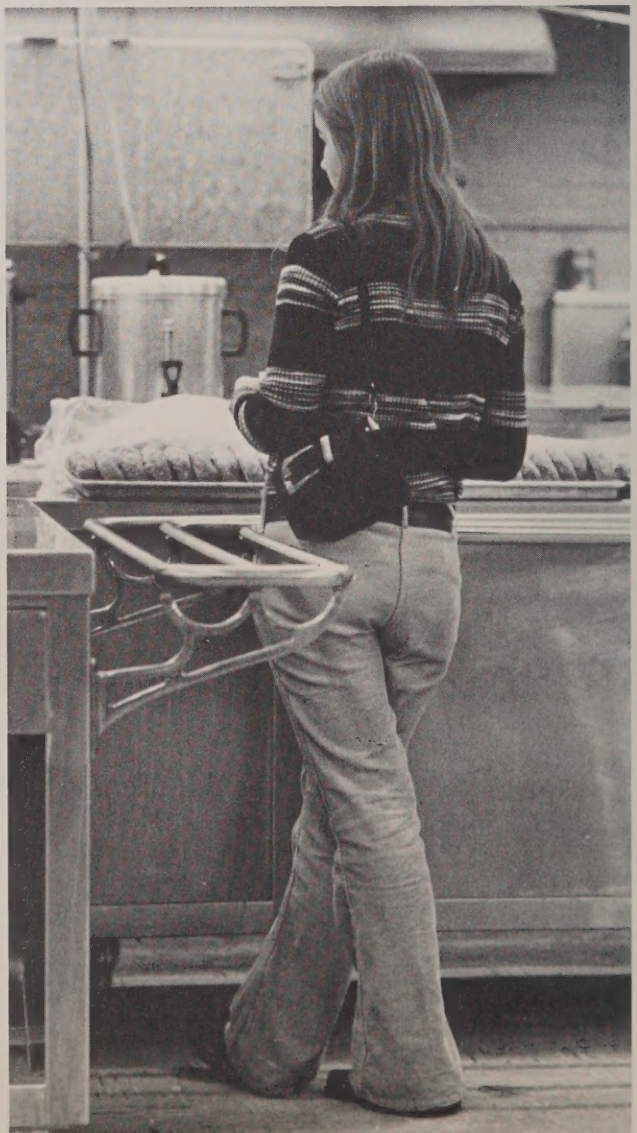
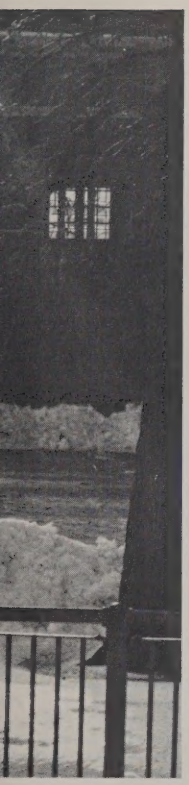
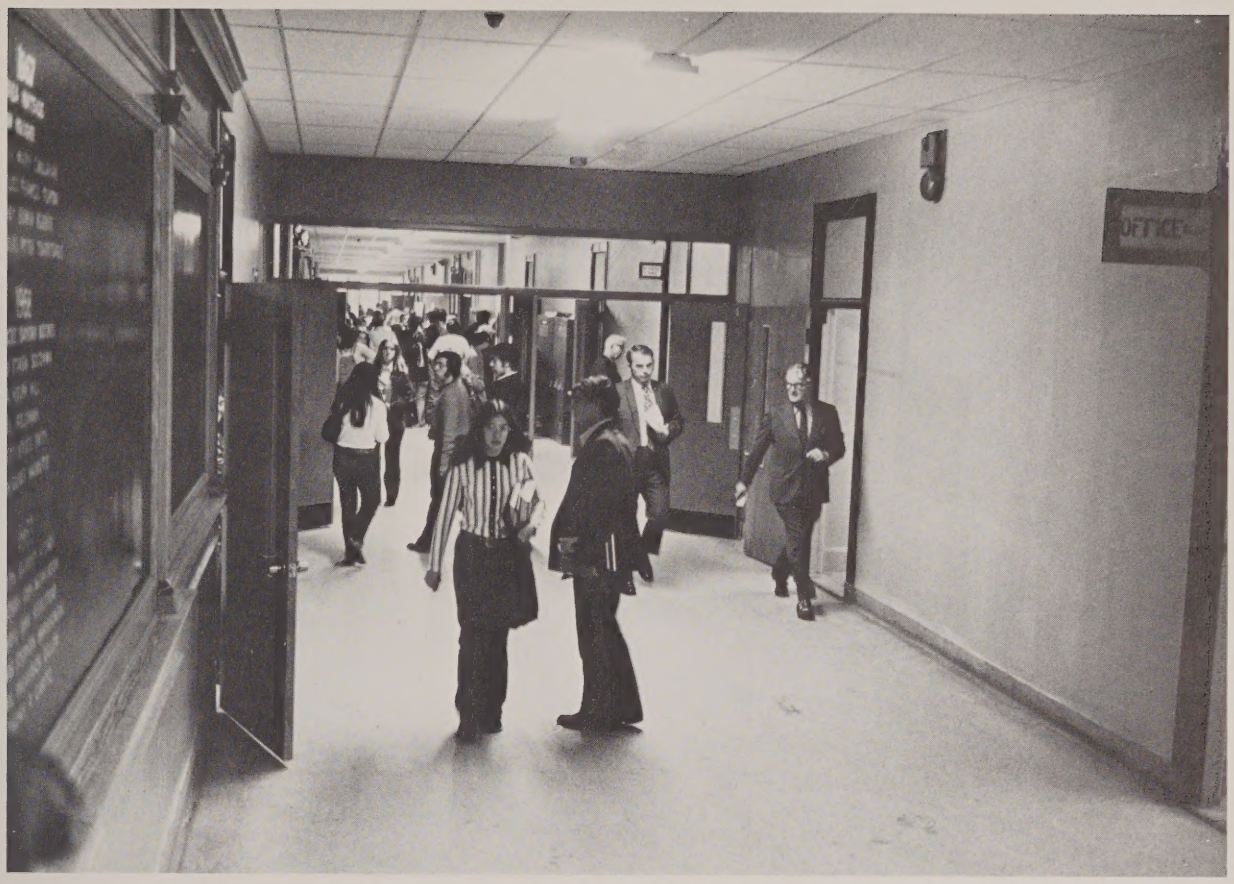
Remember . . . getting lost on your first day at Lowell High . . . finding out who your teachers would be . . . running into your old junior high friends in the corridors . . . smoking in Lucy Larcom Parkway . . . registering to vote . . . standing in the lunch line . . . losing your locker key . . . copying homework . . . trying to get to class on time . . . eating on the "other" side of the lunchroom . . . cutting classes . . . daydreaming in French class . . . changing for gym . . . practicing for G.O. tryouts . . . smoking in the boy's room . . . waiting for the end of G hour . . . studying for your drivers' test . . . doodling in books . . . getting up for school in the morning when it's still dark . . . catching the 7:10 bus . . .



You've got to get up every morning with a smile on your face
And show the world all the love in your heart
Then people gonna treat you better
You're gonna find, yes you will
That you're beautiful as you feel.

—Carole King





Marching in the Field Day parade . . . meeting "her" under the clock . . . getting your driver's license . . . cutting health . . . seeing the headmaster for the first time . . . getting your first job . . . registering for the draft . . . getting accepted to college . . . skipping . . . being measured for your cap and gown . . . studying . . . playing cards . . . going to the nurses' office . . . parking in the muddy lot across the canal . . . going to classes in St. Anne's . . . trying out for girl officer . . . freezing on the Senior class trip to Hampton Beach . . . doing the Greek dance at the Chateau de Ville . . . receiving your diploma . . . whatever happened to . . . the open campus . . . When did she get to be a beauty?
When did he grow to be so tall?
Wasn't it yesterday when they were small? . . .
Sunrise, Sunset, Swiftly fly the years;
One season following another,
Laden with happiness and tears.

—"Fiddler on the Roof"

It is dangerous
To go out into this hellish world
But it is still more dangerous
To hide in the bushes.

Raymond A. Sullivan

Headmaster

The earth has circled the sun four times, and events that have affected mankind have occurred at an increasingly faster rate, since you entered high school in 1968. In the past year alone, China has become less mysterious; Russia, less distant; and our economic relations with our global neighbors have changed radically.

This fall the youngest voters in the history of our country will help choose a president. Among those voters will be many of the members of your graduating class. The administration and faculty of Lowell High School hope that the education you have received here has helped to prepare you for this, as well as other responsibilities which you will face in the future.

As you leave your high school years behind you, remember that your education has just begun to develop and that your continued quest for truth, knowledge and understanding is essential.

CAFETERIA GIRLS

Margaret White

The student body and faculty of the Lowell High School has suffered a great loss in the death of Miss Margaret White, a member of the Spanish Department, and more recently, director of the Language Laboratory. For more than twenty years Miss White served as an exemplary teacher in this school.

Over three years ago she was stricken ill, and, as a result, lost her eyesight to the degree that she was legally blind. It was assumed that her career as a teacher was at an end. However, with most unusual determination and extraordinary courage, she overcame her handicap so that she was able to return to school and master the operation of the Language Laboratory so completely that many pupils did not know of her lack of sight.

We mourn her passing. We can never forget her strength of character in her misfortune nor her complete dedication to her profession.

You're about to take a giant step forward into your future. We think we can make it the bright one you want it to be at New England Telephone. With a job that's every bit as big as your ambition. You see, we need people. With all kinds of talents. And especially, people who really want to get going with their future. And want to be rewarded with automatic raises. Your High School diploma is all the experience you need. If you want a job and a future that's tailored to your talent... along with unusually generous fringe benefits, stop in and see your guidance counselor. Ask when and where you can apply for an interview with the people who want to make your future as happy as you want it to be.

New England Telephone An equal opportunity employer
